剧情介绍
一位孤独的犀牛饲养员执迷于他对冷漠邻居的单相思，想尽一切办法来赢得她的心，从爱慕发展至痴狂。故事融合了喜剧和荒诞剧，探讨了青春的情感历程和理想主义，爱情的盲目固执以及自我意识的形成。
该剧由廖一梅编剧，孟京辉于1999年执导，被誉为中国当代戏剧经典和中国的“爱情圣经”。在这部作品问世接近30年后，我们通过实时投影来增强其实验性，带来一个模糊现实与幻想的世界。

Synopsis

A lonely rhinoceros keeper becomes obsessed with his unrequited love for an indifferent neighbor, trying every possible means to win her heart—a pursuit that escalates from infatuation to madness. Blending comedy and the absurd, the story explores the emotional journey and idealism of youth, the blind stubbornness of love, and the formation of self-awareness.

Written by Liao Yimei and directed by Meng Jinghui in 1999, the play is hailed as a classic of contemporary Chinese theater and China’s “Bible of Love.” Nearly 30 years after its premiere, we enhance its experimental nature through real-time projections, creating a world where reality and fantasy blur.

About Us

Founded in 2008, the Princeton Chinese Theater is the first student-run Chinese theater group in the United States.

We are dedicated to promoting Chinese culture both on and off campus through the performance of Chinese plays. Our past directors have included Princeton students and Chinese language instructors, while our cast has encompassed students from all grades, countries, and majors at Princeton, as well as students from other universities. Each spring and fall, PCT presents a new production, inviting all those who love Chinese culture and theater—both within and beyond Princeton—to join us for a memorable experience.
